Recital Night: Wed July 18, 2018 7:00 p.m.

Park Place Church of God
501 College Drive, Anderson, IN 46012-3499

Recital Night is a formal presentation of performances representing a wide array of instruments and experience levels. It is an excellent opportunity to present your highest quality performance pieces in a formal concert environment. Auditions are open to the Choir School family and will be held on Tuesday afternoon. Appropriate material for Recital Night includes vocal, instrumental, small ensemble, dance, poetry, etc. Recital material should be considered classical in nature.

The auditions committee will select recitalists based on performance quality, appropriateness, poise, and program balance.

In keeping with the formality of the occasion, performers dress in their best concert attire and the entire Choir School family dresses in similar attire.

Thursday Night Live is an evening where we can kick back, enjoy each other's talents and just have fun. Acts (of less than 5 minutes) with singing, dancing, comedy, etc. are needed. You may want to recruit other Choir School people during the week and work up some type of act. Bring your music, props, costuming, and ideas.

Attire/Dress for the week

Each year it is amazing how many clothes we need to pack to make it through a week of Choir School! Here is a no-nonsense summary of what you need to survive. Please make sure your wardrobe is acceptable for a Christian music camp.

Conservative and modest clothing is expected.

Please note that you will be in air conditioning as well as outside in the elements, so wearing layers is suggested.

Running shorts, extremely short shorts, extremely short skirts/dresses, spaghetti strap tops, strapless tops, or outfits that expose the midriff are not acceptable attire.
